Welcome Jessie Brinkerhoff to the Southern Utah Art Guild Team

The Southern Utah Art Guild is pleased to welcome Jessie Brinkerhoff as the new Arrowhead Gallery Assistant.

Jessie holds a Bachelor of Arts in English Literature, with a minor in Management, from Utah Tech University. She brings a valuable combination of writing, organizational, communication, and administrative skills to the Guild.

From March 2023 through March 2026, Jessie worked as a freelance content and contributing writer for KeenGamer/Strangely Awesome Games. In this role, she managed weekly article production using WordPress and Canva, met deadlines, and maintained high-quality work. She also completed a sports writing internship with The Hive Sports, where she conducted interviews and published weekly articles.

Jessie's previous administrative experience includes researching employee onboarding processes, assisting with financial documentation, and supporting client workshops. These skills will serve her well as she helps manage the daily operations of Arrowhead Gallery and provides a welcoming experience for our artists and visitors.

In her free time, Jessie enjoys drawing landscapes at her family's ranch outside Kanab.

Terrence Walters
President of the Art Guild Board

Jessie will begin her new role at Arrowhead Gallery on October 26.

Please join us in welcoming Jessie to the Southern Utah Art Guild team! We look forward to working with her and wish her every success in her new position.

Sharon Turley
November Featured Artist

Sharon grew up in Idaho where she spent much of her childhood backpacking and camping in the Teton Mountains, and snow skiing in the mountains during the winters. Her parents loved to be outdoors and taught her to love and appreciate God's beautiful handiwork.

After high school, Sharon had the opportunity to spend 6 weeks in Europe studying art history, and it was on this trip that she fell in love with the old Dutch masters. This helped her decide to major in art at Brigham Young University where she earned her BA degree in art education and art history.

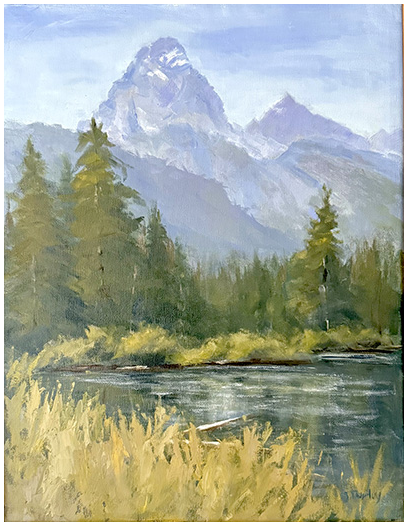

he next 45 years were spent raising a family of 5 children and helping in her husband's business where she designed all of the publications and provided painted backgrounds and scenery for many of her children's school plays and musicals. Vacations always found her in the mountains either backpacking, camping or spending time on the ski slopes with her family.

Upon her husband's retirement, Sharon rediscovered her love of art after taking a few painting workshops, and decided to put her energies into landscape painting, where she could express her love for the mountains and share the simple beauties of nature. Sharon is a member of Oil Painters of America and has received first prize awards in several art competitions in Utah Valley, as well as being accepted into the the spring 2026 Sears Art Invitational. She is currently represented at the Arrowhead Art Gallery.

Fall Open House at Arrowhead

Colleen Gianatiempo both organized/hosted and also demonstrated at the Fall Open House. Featured artists were Meaghan Gates, ceramist and Professor of Ceramics at Utah Tech and Colleen Gianatiempo an abstract fine artist who sells worldwide, participates in many organizations and is a Professor of Art at Utah Tech.

Arrowhead Gallery's next Open House is scheduled for December 4.

Meet + Mingle

Meet + Mingle IS the All-Guild General Meeting
EVERYONE is welcome

Tuesday, November 17 @ 3 to 4:30pm

In November, we will feature our Collage Club. Members will be highlighted, we will share what we're creating, and celebrate the many ways we use paper, fabric, color, pattern, and texture to bring our ideas to life.

We'll also do a little hands-on collage exercise together so you can jump in, experiment, and enjoy the process.

Bring a piece of art to share and to be critiqued.

Connect | Get your Art Gala-ready

November 5 from 6 to 8pm

Bring your artwork, ideas, and your creative spirit to Connect. This is your chance to share your work, receive friendly and constructive art critiques, and connect with fellow artists. At the end of the meeting, we vote for our favorites.

Each month, artists have the opportunity to have their work selected for a special place at our biggest event of the year — the Gala on December 4 at Urban Arts Gallery in Salt Lake City.

Whether you're looking for fresh eyes on a painting, curious about how others see your work, or hoping to see your art on display at the Gala, join us at Connect.

What is a SubClub? A fun and popular way for artists to get together, make art, share ideas and tips, and enjoy a little creative camaraderie along the way. Interested? suag.info@gmail.com subject: SubClub

NEW: Photography Club

Tuesday, November 17 at 6pm

Join us for the first meeting of our new Photography Club. Lee Bramley will lead the group. Lee brings years of photography experience and previously owned and operated an art gallery for 10 years.

At our first meeting, Lee will share some ideas for future gatherings, but we want this club to reflect your interests, too. We'll brainstorm ideas for photography outings, learning opportunities, demonstrations, and member presentations as we begin building our schedule together.

Lee Bramley

Bring a few of your favorite photos to share and get to know fellow photography enthusiasts. Whether you're looking to develop your skills, find inspiration, or simply connect with others who love photography, we'd love to have you join us!

Collage Club

Thursday, November 19 @ Noon

Collage Club is growing — we've welcomed three new members. Our creative community is buzzing as we collaborate, share design ideas, and exchange inspiration, paper, and fabric. We're pushing beyond the traditional, experimenting with image transfers, duct tape, found objects, and all kinds of unexpected materials.

Chris Hale, Nanette Pugsley, Colleen Gianatiempo, Stephanie Farrar

The energy of creating together in the Innovation Plaza Maker Space is invigorating. Come share ideas, try something new, and see where your imagination takes you. New to collage? You are absolutely welcome to attend.

Creativity in Every Stroke

1st and 3rd Wednesday each month
November 4 and 18 @ Noon

Whether you love the rich depth of charcoal, the softness of pastels, the precision of graphite, or the vibrant layers of colored pencil, you'll find a place here. From beginners just starting out to experienced artists refining their craft—everyone is welcome. This is a relaxed, supportive environment where artists and hobbyists come together to share ideas, learn new techniques, and enjoy the creative process. Bring a current project or start something new—we're here to inspire each other.

First time attending? Please send a quick RSVP so we can welcome you! For more information, Email Chris Hale.

Abstract Meets Realism: Alcohol Ink on Canvas

with Michael Tabor | November 4, 11, 18; December 2, 9, 16 (Wednesdays) | 9 am - 12 pm | $270

In this ongoing class, you work on your own paintings, guided by a blend of instructor-led demonstrations, one-on-one feedback from Michael, and encouragement from peers. Or you may challenge yourself with an instructor painting assignment. Class time will include painting from images of your choice, instructor-led demonstrations and in-studio group critique. This class is designed for students with fundamental watercolor training.

Alcohol Ink Christmas Ornaments

with Wignall DeBry | November 19th (Thursday) | 5 pm - 7 pm | $60

Join Artist Leslie Wignall DeBry as she guides you through creating beautiful Christmas ornaments using the mesmerizing medium of alcohol inks. Students will create their own unique ornaments while learning the process of using canned air to move the inks. This fun, beginner friendly class is relaxing for the mind and soul as it focuses your attention on the movement and flow of the ink. Each ornament is unique, and you will create four, 4” round ornaments.

The Layered Page: Transforming Books Through Mixed-Media Art

with Dana Henry Martin | November 19th (Thursday) | 10 am - 3 pm | $85

Make an ordinary page from an old book come to life by highlighting just the right words and adding interest with collage, ink, watercolor, gel crayons, embroidery thread, and more. Together, we'll take book pages from ordinary to extraordinary. We'll start with individual pages, then the instructor will introduce the concept of the art book (also known as the altered book), teach students how to make one, and get everyone started on a regular art practice using their art book. Art supplies will be provided.

The Why Behind the Work: The Art of Creating from Your Gut

with John Berry | November 20, 21 2026 (Friday, Saturday) | 1 pm - 4 pm | $165

Creating authentic art is about more than technique, it's about reaching into the depths of who you are and expressing something real. This two-part workshop invites you to explore why you create, and how to make work that is unmistakably your own. Together, we'll ask: Where does true creative voice come from? Can we separate ourselves from external influence? What happens when we tap into our own thoughts, feelings, and instincts?
