GUILD NEWS + EVENTS

Dear Guild Members,

I am pleased to announce that Van Strohm has been selected to serve as the Interim Chair of the Arrowhead Gallery.

Van brings to this position a unique combination of professional experience, artistic passion, and a deep appreciation for the natural beauty of Southern Utah. Although he spent much of his professional career as a successful software engineer in Silicon Valley, photography eventually became an important part of his life and has since grown into a professional career.

Van and his wife moved to St. George in 2019 following his retirement from software engineering. Since then, they have spent much of their time exploring, hiking, and photographing the remarkable landscapes and wildlife of Southern Utah.

Van became a professional photographer in 2022 and joined the Southern Utah Art Guild the following year. Since then, he has received multiple awards at local art and photography shows, including, 1st place in photography at the St. George Art Festival in 2025 and Juror's Choice Award at the Kayenta Photography Show in 2023. His work has been featured at art festivals, shows, and exhibitions throughout Utah, including Kayenta, Salt Lake City, St. George, Ogden, Helper, as well as Arizona. His work has also been featured at the Sears Gallery at Utah Tech University, and Artisan Rhapsody in Vail, Colorado.

Art Guild Board*

Van regularly participates in exhibitions at Red Cliff Gallery, and his work is currently on display and available for purchase at Arrowhead Gallery.

We are excited to have Van take on this leadership role at Arrowhead Gallery. His professional background, organizational experience, knowledge of the local arts community, and passion for photography and the beauty of Southern Utah will be valuable assets as we continue to strengthen and grow the Gallery.

Please join me in welcoming Van Strohm to his new role and wishing him every success.

Grants Coordinator

The Southern Utah Art Guild is seeking an organized, motivated, and community-minded Grants Coordinator to help the Guild identify and pursue funding opportunities that support its programs, galleries, educational activities, and community outreach.

The Grants Coordinator will research potential grants from foundations, corporations, government agencies, and other funding sources; coordinate the preparation and submission of grant applications with the Guild Grant Committee; and work directly with Guild Grant Committee to gather the information and documentation needed for a successful application.

Grant experience not required; we will train. Basic experience with MS Word and MS Excel required. Position is a part-time volunteer position. Individuals interested in the position should submit a brief statement of interest outlining their relevant experience and interest in the position.

Please submit materials to the Southern Utah Art Guild President, Terrence Walters.

He loves teaching and assisting students toward their art goals and leading them toward a career in contributing to the art world.

OPPORTUNITY

Red Cliff Gallery is looking for dedicated volunteers to join our Hanging Committee.

This is a recurring commitment (not a one-time thing) so we're looking for members who are reliable and ready to show up consistently. Your time will largely be focused on intake and hanging days, takedown days, and opening receptions for our shows, and occasional meetings.

The ideal candidate has a strong eye for art placement and display, works well as part of a team, and strikes that sweet spot between taking initiative and following the lead of the Gallery Director and set policies.

If this sounds like you, we'd love to have you involved in bringing our exhibitions to life. Reach out to redcliffgalleryutah@gmail.com to express your interest.

Amy Zygmunt October Featured Artist

I was born in and spent my early childhood in Wisconsin but moved to Texas in my early teens where I spent most of my adult life. Art has been in my blood since I could hold a pencil. I had a unique opportunity to attend and graduate from the High School for the Performing and Visual arts in Houston and afterward attended the University of Texas in Austin where I earned my Bachelor of Fine Arts degree.

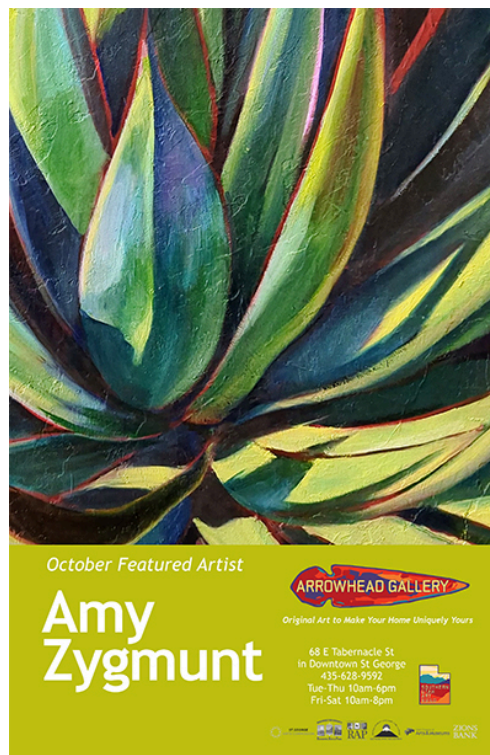

Upon graduation I applied my illustration skills to get a design position where I was hired to illustrate 100 banker's portraits for a bank display. This position introduced me to the graphic design industry where I built a successful career illustrating and designing consumer facing retail packaging and point of purchase print materials for major retail brands Pennzoil, Quaker State, Shell, Rain-X, Black Magic & Gumout products, many of which are currently on the shelves at national retail chain stores. I am appreciative of my time doing graphic design, but it was all with the goal of getting back to my love of fine art. The minute I retired I packed up and moved to Southern Utah to pursue my passion for art.

A little over a year ago I retired, and my boyfriend and I immediately moved to Hurricane, Utah so we could experience the beauty and outdoor activities of the area. Here I found great inspiration and was content painting away in my Utah studio.

Then four months ago I became aware of this vibrant art community in St George. I have since become a member of the Southern Utah Art Guild, the Dixie Watercolor Society and the Southern Utah Watercolor Society in Cedar City. I am involved with the Art Guild Watercolor and Urban Sketcher clubs. I attend every event I can possibly attend, and I have become reacquainted with Plein Air painting where I hope to participate more when it is cooler in the fall. I can't get enough. I have so much excitement to finally have this opportunity to explore my creativity and am grateful to be surrounded by such amazing talent. It is truly a wonderful art community.

Meet + Mingle

Tuesday, October 20 @ 3 to 4:30pm

Our next Meet + Mingle will introduce you to the Drawing Club — a group that has grown so much that they actually outgrew their original meeting space.

This isn't just a colored-pencil group anymore. The Drawing Club has expanded to include charcoal, graphite, and other drawing mediums, giving artists lots of ways to explore their love of drawing.

Come meet the group and learn more about what they're creating. This growing club is led by the amazing Chris Hale! Join us, meet some fellow artists.

September Meet + Mingle

This fun meeting was led by Urban Sketcher's leader, Tina, as she introduced us to Urban Sketching – an international movement. Club members shared their sketchbooks, stories, and adventures, giving everyone a peek into this creative and engaging group.

Our Programs Leader, Colleen, then led a quick and fun lesson on how to draw people in 3 easy steps. After, we learned what a "throw down" is and had an opportunity to participate!

Connect | Get your Art Gala-ready

October 29 from 6 to 8pm

Bring your artwork, ideas, and your creative spirit to Connect. This is your chance to share your work, receive friendly and constructive art critiques, and connect with fellow artists. At the end of the meeting, we vote for our favorites.

Each month, artists have the opportunity to have their work selected for a special place at our biggest event of the year — the Gala on December 4 at Urban Arts Gallery in Salt Lake City.

Whether you're looking for fresh eyes on a painting, curious about how others see your work, or hoping to see your art on display at the Gala, join us at Connect.

St George Art Summit

Many of us attended this City conference where we made several contacts and deepened relationships with other art organizations and City personnel.

Topics included:

- > Advice on grants funded by the RAP tax
- > Tourism and ideas to take advantage of tourism
- > Obtain letters of support from supporters and artists
- > Using software to find grants
- > Calendar times so City events are not in conflict
- > Grow the pie instead of competing
- > Look at small donors.

We were able to collaborate, brainstorm and share lists. Emphasized was the attitude that we all are not in competition - each organization is unique.

Abstract Meets Realism: Alcohol Ink on Canvas
with Leslie Wignall DeBry | October 15 | 10 am - 1 pm |
$65

Explore the expressive possibilities of alcohol ink in this unique Abstract Meets Realism painting class. Designed for adults of all skill levels, this class combines the fluid, unpredictable beauty of alcohol ink with elements of recognizable imagery to create a vibrant 12 × 12-inch canvas panel. Under Leslie's guidance, you'll learn how to work with highly pigmented alcohol inks, using isopropyl alcohol, breath, and an air blower to move, blend, and shape the inks into dynamic backgrounds and captivating effects. You'll then bring abstract forms together with realistic details, learning how to create contrast, depth, and visual interest within your composition.

Two Day Workshop: Contemporary Mixed Media Diptychs for Adventurous Souls!

with Linda (Linja) McCowan | October 16 + 17 |
10 am - 3:30 pm | $375 (All Materials Included)

Join us for a special two-day workshop with returning guest artist Linda (Linja) McCowan. Over two immersive days, you'll learn to create a contemporary diptych —your own modern narrative told across two 30" x 24 " panels using contrast, texture, line, and color. Linja will guide you through demonstrations on how to use a palette knife with heavy body acrylics, the vibrant potential of layering acrylic inks and glazes and ways to create boldly and loosely. Packed with instruction and hands-on creative exploration, this is a one-of-a-kind workshop you won't want to miss.

with Joyce Casey | October 22 + 23 | Day 1: 10 am - 2 pm;
Day 2: 10 am - 12 pm | $175 (All Supplies Included)

Create a beautiful stained glass mosaic that captures the light! Whether you're new to mosaics or looking to explore a new artistic medium, this fun, hands-on workshop will guide you through creating your own glass-on-glass mosaic panel. You'll complete an 8 x 8 inch mosaic ready to display in a sunny window or frame after class. Choose from several patterns or create your own unique design. No experience is necessary—beginners are welcome!
